

Samuel Lekula Kameel

Environmental Health Practitioner | B-Tech Environmental Health | B-Tech Project Management

Email: Samuel.kameel@gmail.com | Mobile: 079 491 7112

Professional Profile

Experienced Environmental Health Practitioner with over 13 years of experience in a tertiary hospital. Expertise in environmental health programmes, infection prevention and control, water quality monitoring, risk management, quality assurance, policy implementation, and project management.

Core Competencies

- Environmental Health
- Legionella & Water Safety
- Infection Prevention and Control
- Risk Management
- Quality Assurance
- Project Management
- Regulatory Compliance
- Leadership & Supervision

Professional Experience

Environmental Health Practitioner – Universitas Academic Hospital (2013–Present)

- Lead environmental health programmes including waste, food hygiene, water quality, vector control, air quality and outbreak management.
- Conduct risk assessments and compliance audits.
- Develop policies, operational plans and monitoring systems.
- Provide reports and recommendations to hospital management.
- Support procurement, budgeting, staff supervision and contractor management.

Education

- B-Tech Project Management – Central University of Technology (2018)
- B-Tech Environmental Health – Central University of Technology (2015)
- National Diploma Environmental Health – Central University of Technology (2011)

Professional Memberships

- Health Professions Council of South Africa (HPCSA) HI 0083607
- Hospital Infection Prevention and Control Committee
- Occupational Health and Safety Committee

- Risk Management Committee

References

Available on request.