

Ms Kolisiwse Nohaji: HI 0091723

Ms Kolisiwse Nohaji is an Assistant Director for Environmental Health Services in Ijeweputswa District in the Free State.

She holds a Post Graduate Diploma in Public Administration, from the University of South Africa, Btech and diploma in Environmental health obtained from Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University.

She has extensive experience of over 11 years in the field in Waste Management, water quality monitoring, disease surveillance among others and has been an active member of various committees. She has worked in various projects aimed at enhancing Environmental Health Service in three different Provinces, promoting sustainable practices and safeguarding public health and minimizing environmental impacts.